

would seem that he (Cooper) had infinitely more cause to complain than any one else, and that he had not the least responsibility therefor. Witness, needing assistance, employed Hersey at $20 per month, after learning that he was a competent and reliable man, and gave him the necessary authority to use his name on congressional bills. During most of the time Hersey worked for him, attorneys could examine their cases. Out of town attorneys, however, had no method of learning the status of their cases except by calling to their aid a member of Congress or corresponding with the bureau. Thousands of complaints had been received that the letters of attorneys and attorneys were wholly ignored by the Pension Office, and he submitted letters complaining that the whole system was being worked for the benefit of Washington attorneys. Recently, he understood, the order had been modified so as to prevent attorneys and claimants from looking at their cases. He had no excuse to make for any one who abused the confidence of a Congressman to supply for pay the demand for information about cases, but the policy pursued by Commissioners Kamm to bank up his name in the hands of Washington attorneys, among whom are his son and in-laws, and his notes, he submitted. The Commission's policy is a harmful debauchery of the public service. Whatever Mr. Hersey had done in the way of selling pension information was a crime, and he is out his (Mr. Cooper's) knowledge or consent, as had already been testified. A GREAT SHOW OF HONESTY.
The first information witness had that Mr. Hersey was receiving pay for work done over his signature was when he received the letter from the Pension Office, which witness returned in a letter telling Morgan that Hersey could not take pay for work done as a part of witness's congressional duties. It was untrue that he had told Mr. Morgan that Hersey would work for him for pay, and witness desired to make the declaration that he had never, directly or indirectly, or through a third party, for any service growing out of his connection with public affairs.

Mr. Kamm had been a great deal of correspondence between Hersey and Mr. Peet, and charged that Peet was related to witness. Mr. Peet was a brother-in-law of Mr. Peet, and charged that Peet was related to witness. Mr. Peet was a brother-in-law of Mr. Peet, and charged that Peet was related to witness. NUMEROUS LAND-SEEKERS CAMPED Near the Soon-to-be-Opened Reservation.

OKLAHOMA CITY, O. T., April 12.—News has just been received to the effect that the many thousands of settlers camped on the southern line of the soon-to-be-opened Cheyenne and Arapaho lands received word last week that the President had issued a proclamation opening the lands. Instantly they, by hundreds and thousands, invaded and took claims. The military at once proceeded, however, to eject them. Then they learned that some one had played a practical joke on them, and they were a hundred miles from a telegraph office. This has greatly complicated the situation, and the military interpretation of the law they became "sooner" and cannot thereafter acquire title to public lands. Big game, the fat chief of the Cheyenne, who was Reno yesterday, drew his blanket around him and delivered himself of this statement: "The Cheyenne and Arapaho are not going to be taken by the soldiers and paposes sprung up, and are as many as the blades of grass in the Washita in the spring. Then, contrary to all Indian traditions, he laughed. Big Tree's statement was correct—the sooner are as thick as the blades of the Washita in spring. Every hour brings more to the border than did the hour before."

State Does Not Bother the Hoosier.
WATKINS, S. D., April 12.—Rain set in last night, and ever since there has been a steady downpour, but for the Sisseton boomers the rain has no terrors. Their ardor is not one to be chilled by moisture. It is a curious sight to see them sitting on the edge of the sidewalk covered with tarpaulins. With the exception of the rising and falling of their coverings as they breathe there is very little to be seen of the resolute human souls are underneath the wrappings. It is common report that singly stowed away in the pockets of some of those in line are soldiers' declarations of the hundred, but a ruling received from the department denies all the aspirations of the world-beat soldiers' friends in the head. The march of the squatters to the reservation has begun in earnest.

The cause of his removal is his new station on the Niagara, a selling liquor and keeping a gambling-house, which was patronized by his white comrades in arms.

PREPARING FOR A STRIKE

Lancashire Mill-Owners and Cotton Operatives About to Begin a Struggle.

Fifteen Million Spindles Will Be Idle on Saturday—President Palacio of Venezuela Ready to Pledge if Necessary.

ANOTHER GREAT STRIKE.

Employees and Cotton-Mill Owners in Lancashire, Eng., About to Engage in a Struggle, Special to the Indianapolis Journal.

LONDON, April 12.—Efforts to settle the dispute between employees and mill-owners in the Lancashire cotton district have failed, and on Saturday, when the notices expire, 75,000,000 spindles will be idle. A number of firms have obtained permission from the Masters' union, on condition of paying large fines, to complete important contracts now under way, but after these are finished no more work is to be done until the dispute is finally settled by the enforced going of one or the other competing parties. The dispute, which has now reached such extensive proportions, is the outgrowth of a strike which took place last September in one of the mills at Staleybridge. The men complained that their weekly wages were practically reduced a twelfth by reason of the use of inferior cotton, which caused a lessened output. An investigation, which was conducted by a commission consisting of two masters and two operatives, proved that the statements of the operatives were true. Eleven thousand spinners are directly affected and seventy thousand others indirectly. The strike, which is connected with the effect of the stopping of the Lancashire production, the union is perfecting arrangements for a protracted struggle.

PALACIO READY TO PLEDGE.

In Event of Defeat by the Rebels Venezuela's President Will Leave the Country.

NEW YORK, April 12.—The Herald's Caracas, Venezuela, correspondent says: Gen. Crespo has reappeared at the head of a strong column of enthusiastic followers. Crespo's headquarters are at Valencia, and he is said to be strongly entrenched. There are fifteen hundred men under his command. It is rumored that another engagement has taken place between the government forces and the revolutionists, but the result is unknown. Nearly all of Palacio's men are now in the field. Caracas is virtually defenseless. People here are hourly expecting to hear that Crespo is sweeping down upon the capital. Palacio is said to be fully prepared for such a move, and it is common belief that he will leave the country at a moment's notice. The revolutionists are said to be in a state of confusion, and the result of the battle is said to be in doubt.

An Expert Examines Deeming and Says He Is a Criminal by Instinct.

MELBOURNE, April 12.—Mr. Marshall Lytle, solicitor for Deeming, the notorious criminal now under arrest here, employed a doctor to make an examination of the prisoner. The doctor says that Deeming is an instinctive criminal. His head measures only six and one-half inches in diameter, which is exceedingly small, compared with his height. The doctor describes his whole character as one of extreme stupidity and constant animosity. His escape from the prison, the doctor says, must have been due more to accident than to any cunning he was capable of. The doctor declines to give expert testimony in a trial on the ground that scientific evidence does not obtain a right hearing in the courts.

A Preacher Who Is Wanted on Serious Charges—Hunted Down by One of His Victims.

MADISON, Ga., April 12.—Bishop Atticus O. Hargood, of the Methodist Church, of California, has telegraphed Rev. J. W. Candler, president of the Emory Methodist College, Oxford, Ga., to have arrested, if possible, Rev. Erhard Dunbar and wife, the former being a minister in the California Conference, and to direct him of his ministerial credentials. The charge is that Mr. and Mrs. Dunbar are living in illegal union, and the story of the case is an interesting one.

Mr. and Mrs. Dunbar arrived at Oxford some time ago to visit their son, who was attending college there.
